4-8-3. POWERS AND DUTIES OF THE COMMITTEE

The ASNMSU Law Book Committee is hereby authorized to:

- D. Review any minor grammatical or formatting errors identified by the ASNMSU Attorney General and, provided that a quorum is present, consent to allowing the Attorney General to correct these errors with a majority vote, so long as the corrections do not alter or confuse the meaning, application, or legislative intent of the section or statute in which the errors are contained. Should any corrections alter or confuse legislative intent, meaning or application, the Law Book Committee shall propose the introduction of legislation to enact the corrections.
 - 1. The Chair of Rules Committee must present to the ASNMSU Senate any grammatical or formatting changes done by the ASNMSU Attorney General by the next Senate meeting after the changes are made.

4-11. SENATE SPECIAL COMMITTEE ON EDUCATION

4-11-4. DUTIES

The Special Committee on Education shall meet at [least twice per semester] the discretion of the ASNMSU Vice President.

Section 3: Rationale.

- 4-2-3: This section was added to the ASNMSU Law Book to explicitly state what happens if you change majors out of your college.
- 4-2-7: This section was removed to prevent that ASNMSU Law Book from being redundant.
- 4-8-3: This section was amended to inform the ASNMSU Senate aware of any changes that with ASNMSU Law Book.
- 4-11-4: This section was amended due to how currently this committee doesn't meet on a regular basis. However it has met in the past when issues have arrived, therefore it has been decided to just leave it at the discretion of the ASNMSU Vice President.
